DIRECTIONS FOR USE

Antifungal Additive for Flexible Vinyl Products:

To be used where the finished product is exposed to conditions conducive to decay.

For protection of flexible vinyl products such as roof membranes, swimming pool liners, awnings, marine upholstery, interior wall covering, flooring, and shower curtains against microbial deterioration.

Use 0.8% to 2.0% of this product, based on the total weight of the plastic compound during the mixing step. Pre-blending into liquid plasticizers for easier mixing can be helpful. This treatment has been shown to be effective for a period of 24 months in well stabilized flexible PVC articles. The duration of protection is dependent upon exposure conditions and the flexible vinyl formulation. In order to determine the most effective use level for this product in a given use, trials are suggested within the label rates.
